EASTLAKE COMMUNITY COUNCIL

Founded in 1971, ECC is a neighborhood association whose membership is open to anyone who lives, works, or owns property in the Eastlake neighborhood. Eastlake is a neighborhood in Seattle, Washington that lies between the eastern shore of Lake Union and the western side of I-5. Eastlake Avenue bisects the neighborhood running two miles, from the University Bridge at the north end to Mercer Street at the south end.

ECC's official purposes include to foster and encourage a sense of community among people who live and work in the neighborhood and to promote programs and distribute information benefiting the neighborhood. The Eastlake News is just one of many ways in which ECC works to promote a thriving neighborhood business district. ECC appreciates its advertisers, who make possible its continued publication of the Eastlake News.
