FEDERAL MONEY - EASTLAKE TO MAKE BID

ECC
GENERAL MEETING

SEWARD
SCHOOL
Dec. 3d
7:30
*

The Ford Administration is fighting inflation by sharing fewer tax dollars with local governments. The federal umbilicus is curiously knotted just out of reach. But Rasmussen's Board is determined to make the leap.

The bait seems to be the same that has been unpalatable for the community council since its inception - Roanoke Reef, for sale or lease. What's to be done with that stalking grey hulk? The fate of Gamorrhah adores some, others are enamored by the dream of a community haven of boats, of people, of a sense of community.

Ted Choi has offered to guide the community in this quest for federal funds. Weaned on Model Cities and Seattle 2000, Mr. Choi is well qualified to prepare the exacting proposal required by the city council and the Housing and Community Development Act.

Funds are tight. The timetable is short. But Eastlake feels the qualifications can be met. At the December 3d general meeting, the board, in conjunction with the Floating Homes Association, will seek the advice of the community at large and present the proposals developed in committee.

MORE ON THE REEF

CITY COUNCIL
DEC 4TH

John Miller and his Planning & Urban Development Committee will meet on December 4th at 2pm to consider the fate of the nuisance down on Roanoke Bay. Attendance or a letter would be most helpful for these deliberations.

NOV 25
DEC 11

Seattle's Shoreline Master Program will be the topic of the City, John Miller, Chairperson, on Monday, November 25, and Wednesday, December 11, both at 7:30 in the Council Chambers. Shorelines committee members Terry Pettus and Anita Klapper are generally satisfied with Draft IV.

SAD BUT TRUE

At the Eastlake Event a well prepared and ample dinner was prepared by Hewitt Catering and drinks were generously served by Marty Klapper. The speakers were informative and entertaining. Hal Green, a man who must find parking precarious, was honored with a tasteful little foto entitled, "For Sale or Lease". But the board overestimated, anticipating a turn-cut equal to that of last year. The ECC is in debt. One bullet biter will be limiting ECC NEWS to members who pay their dues.

MORE GOOD NEWS

The people listed on the cover side of the ECC NEWS are the new officers of the Eastlake Community Council for the coming year. There have been no less than seven board meetings in the month of November. The new board is getting it together and getting it together quickly. Keep their phone numbers, knock on their doors and remember the membership drive begins soon!

CHRISTMAS CRUISE

If you care to be part of The Parade of Lighted Ships on the Virginia V, tickets may be obtained from Rasmussen, Longman, Schlag or Clemmens. There will be food on board, music and the rest. Departure is 4pm, return at 8. $5.

CELEBRATION

Rumor has it that Phil Keightley is resting at the end of some dock waxing his skis. May the snow be good and the weekends free.

Phillip, we thank you
