OUR NEW GENERAL MEETING PLACE WILL BE ANNOUNCED NEXT ISSUE

There will be no general meeting of the Eastlake Community Council for September, due to the loss of Seward School as a convenient center. Usually, our general meetings are the THIRD TUESDAY of each month, from September through June. We hoped to continue this schedule. Sad to say, in trying to renew our permit to make use of the school facilities, we found that cutbacks in the School budget for custodial help has forced closing down of all Seattle elementary schools in the evening.

Our inquiries have disclosed that custodians will be on hand just one night each week. Perhaps we may find a way to coincide our meeting with the janitor's working day. This might mean changing our regular meeting night. We are also checking out other possible meeting sites.

THERE WILL BE A GENERAL MEETING NEXT MONTH. It will be the third week in October. The place and time will be announced in the OCTOBER NEWSGRAM. Notices will also be posted on local billboards prior to the meeting. In the meantime, please write us if you have any ideas for a new meeting place. It must be centrally located to the area, and accessible to the elderly and handicapped.

Eastlake Rezone Problems Soon
To Be Worked Out

Early in October, the Seattle Department of Community Development (DCD) plans to make public its recommendations for new zoning in the Eastlake residential areas, including multi-family areas.

This will be a milestone in our planning efforts with DCD since early this year.

Our committee, the Eastlake Technical Advisory Committee (TAC) has been advising DCD on both the residential and business areas, but many details of the business zones remain to be worked out.

By the end of October, there will likely be a public meeting in the Eastlake area to discuss

OUR AIM IS TO:

1. Encourage and enjoy a sense of community in this neighborhood.
2. Work to highlight and preserve the traditions that make Eastlake a good place in which to live and work.
3. Provide a clearing house for information on governmental and private programs that affect our community.
4. Serve as an Action Group to initiate and encourage programs that will enhance our lives.
5. Work for the public enjoyment of shorelines.

DCD's recommendations for the Eastlake multi-family residential zones.

This will be an important opportunity for everyone who wishes to say what the shape of our neighborhood will be in the years to come.

It will also be a chance to meet city planners, who are working on the project, as well as the many home owners, renters and business people of the Eastlake area, who have volunteered their time and energy as TAC members.

If you have any questions, please pass them along to the Eastlake Community Council, or call our own planner, John Wall, 625-4492.

Arts Commission Has Funds

The Eastlake Community is looking for creative persons who would like to design and carry out ideas involving the Fine Arts.

The Seattle Art Commission has funds available for our neighborhood for projects in in sculpture, ceramics, graphic arts, or other visual or performing arts.

Call Lynn Lomax, 324-1426, after 6 p.m. if you would like to participate.

WATCH IT

In October the City Council will consider adopting a "Master Use Permit" to be administered by the newly created Department of Construction and Land Use. The master permit will incorporate into a single permit numerous individual administrative decisions on land use now required for many projects.

Included will be permits based on zoning, shoreline, subdivision, and street regulations and environmental laws.

Hearings before City Council on the issues will be on October 2, at 7:30 p.m., in Council Chambers, 11th Floor, 600 Fourth Ave.

CANDIDATES NIGHT

Although the Eastlake Community Council does not endorse specific candidates, we feel that it is important to hear them.

Accordingly, ECC will rally with neighboring communities to provide a forum for candidates for state offices.

Tentative candidates schedules are: Oct. 22 at 7:30 at University Christian Church.

We'd like a good turnout. If interested, call Martha Means, Ravenna-Bryant Community Council, 522-9080.
