A CRUCIAL ISSUE WHICH COULD DRASTICALLY CHANGE THE EASTLAKE AREA is now in the works. It's the proposed Neighborhood Commercial Zoning Policies by the City of Seattle's Land Use and Transportation Project, and it could have serious implications for several sections in our area. Did you know that your place of residence or business could now be scheduled for a rezoning change -- either from a residential zone to a commercial zone, OR, a commercial zone to a residential zone? The consequences for Eastlakers are too numerous for us to even begin to discuss here and we only need say that it could have a very major effect on your living and/or working environment in the very near future. Want to know more? Attend the January 18 Eastlake Community Council meeting! We'll have representatives on hand from the Land Use and Transportation Project office to discuss the proposed commercial zoning policies, and the Department of Construction and Land Use to review the present and new multi-family zoning regulations now in place. This is one meeting you absolutely cannot afford to miss. Be there!

(over, please)

FUNDRAISING UPDATE: We've just been informed by KING Radio that their annual "Great Garage Sale" has been cancelled this year. This will have serious effects on the Eastlake Community Council as it has been our largest fund raiser of the year. KING will keep up posted if they will have another similar type event in the future, but, if you have any suggestions for fund raising activities --- such as an Eastlake Garage Sale, please let us know at our upcoming meeting. We'd love to hear from you!

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS Mr. and Mrs. Tom H. Foulds, Joe and Rosamond Larson, Bruce C. Davis Co., Mr. Wentz, Mr. McKibbon, Adlar Properties, Olive and Janet Jorgens and D. Lee. Thank you!
