JANUARY 1985

JAN. 15 Meeting

7pm, Seward School

PARKING

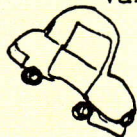

Did you just get another ticket for parking in the alley? Did you have to carry your groceries five blocks last night? Does the parking crunch seem to get worse every year? What can be done about it? Well, the first thing to do is an updated study of the parking problem.

Last fall we published a questionnaire asking people in Eastlake what they thought the Community Council should be doing. To nobody's surprise, a study of the parking problem was top vote-getter. This month, the parking study gets launched. We will have several experts on such studies at our January meeting to tell us what kinds of information we should gather, how to gather it and how it could be useful to coming up with solutions. We will make a draft outline of the study and recruit volunteers from the neighborhood to work in various areas. We need people to help:

1. Design and coordinate the study.
2. Take the parking counts in their area.
3. Tabulate the results.
4. Write up the results.

If you're interested in doing something about parking, don't miss this meeting!

UPCOMING IN EASTLAKE

January 15--Launching the parking study.

Feb. ¹⁹15--The revised Shorelines Plan. The City is proposing (yes, again) revisions to the Shorelines Plan. We will have City types at the meeting to explain their proposals.

March ¹⁹20--The rites of spring. To celebrate the sap flowing in our veins, we are holding a night on urban gardening (indoors and outdoors with emphasis on small places). We will try to get experts to give ideas and diagnose your poor dead greenery.

April ¹⁶20--Neighborhood Cleanup and LITTER LOTTERY. We got rained out (indeed, the rain was blowing sideways) in November, so we've rescheduled for April 20, which also happens to be the week for Washington State's big cleanup rally.

MAY ²¹--Annual Dinner and Gala 15th Birthday Celebration for Eastlake Community Council.

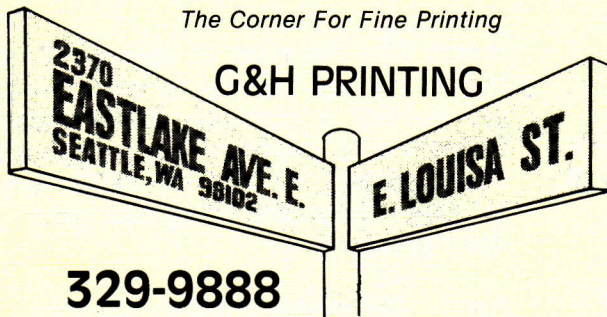

ECC membership meetings are held at 7:00 pm the third Tuesday of each month at Seward School, upstairs in the Teachers Lounge. Work meetings are held the second Tuesday of the month at Dan Reiss's house.

COMMUNITY CONGRESS FORUM
 Friday, Jan 25, 7 pm
 Wallingford United Methodist Church
 2115 N. 42nd

To kick off the big "Community Congress" planned for this spring, the Central Seattle Community Council Federation (of which ECC is a member) is sponsoring a forum on "Creating Strong Communities in Seattle: The Current Realities". We urge Eastlakers to attend this fascinating forum and the congress in the spring. A 6 pm potluck will precede the Forum. For more information call the Federation at 522-3005.

FLOATING HOME NEWS

The Floating Homes Assn. still has copies of its marvelous cookbooks, but not for long. The books were so popular, they almost sold out in two weeks. If you want a first edition copy, get your order into the Floating Homes Assn. fast. The address is 2329 Fairview Ave. East, 98102. Copies cost $8.95 and they're worth it!

WHITE BOARD SCORECARD

Those big white boards you see around the neighborhood are required to indicate proposed construction. We've had a blizzard of them in Eastlake this year. Here's a status:

1177 Fairview E.: "Crazy Lobster" Restaurant under construction

2364 Fairview E.: "Seawind" townhouses (otherwise known as those things or "the wall") almost complete.

2510 Fairview E.: Deck and stair for Ron Kasprisin Architect's office.

2012 Eastlake E.: 20 condominium units not being built yet.

2216 Minor E.: 12 condominium units not being built yet.

2329 Yale E.: 9 condominium units under construction.

55-65 E. Roanoke: "Roanoke Reef" condominiums under construction.

80 E. Roanoke: public viewing platform.

120 E. Edgar: Artist's studio addition not being built yet

123 E. Edgar: 5-unit apartment not being built yet.

1700 Franklin E.: Rezone for mini-warehouses under the freeway still not granted.

YES! I want to help take care of Eastlake. My dues are enclosed.
