GENERAL MEETING

This month's GENERAL MEETING is FEBRUARY 3rd at Seward School cafeteria. Besides workin on the Block Watch Program, METRO Transit is sending a representative to show us the plan for improving transit downtown.

PLEASE COME JOIN US FOR THIS PRESENTATION.

COMMERCIAL ZONING

The City of Seattle has started on the new commercial zoning for Eastlake. Anyone interested in participating or being kept up to date on this, please contact Fred Kempe at 322-2222 or 622-5505.

WEATHERIZATION PROGRAM

Are you sitting in your home freezing your buns off because your home is heated (ha, ha) with natural gas?

Well, the City of Seattle and Peoples Bank have a deal for you: they will loan you money, after an energy audit, to do weatherization improvements and you pay back 85% of the cost of an 11% loan over five years and what a deal!

Call the Weatherization Program office, phone line 625-3800, for more details and a warmer winter.

BLOCK WATCH

At the January 15th General Meeting of the Eastlake Community Council, the first steps were taken to organize a Community-Wide Block Watch Program.

If you are interested in participating in this program (really?-haven't you always wanted to be a Block Captain) call Bob Virkelyst at 329-0285 or 259-9292. A meeting is scheduled at 2405 Boylston East on February 9th (Tuesday) at 7:30 PM.

KING GREAT GARAGE SALE

On those cold winter nights when you're tired of watching Let's Make a Deal and drinking wine, how about cleaning out your closets for the KING GREAT GARAGE SALE.

Once again the Eastlake Community Council has secured a booth at the King Great Garage Sale, scheduled for April 10th at the Coliseum. We need to fill it with treasures from the closets of Eastlake. So get out your Safeway brown bags and start going through those closets, garages and drawers, (after all there are better things to do in Spring).

We will keep you posted on where to take these treasures in future newsletters.

Please call Lynn at 324-1426 for more information.

CONSTRUCTION IN EASTLAKE

Not much construction is going on presently in Eastlake, however, Daly's is remodeling and planning to enclose their eating area. Demolition has been approved by the City for this remodeling.

An office building North of East Hamlin is in the works. Further information will be supplied as this project develops.
